CREATING TRANSCENDENT AUDIENCE EXPERIENCES

I just opened my dictionary to confirm the points below:

Look up "obbligato". In music it is "a continuing background motif."

And "counterpoint." It is "a melody composed to be combined with another melody."

This is what your first 3 assignments were about.

1. Your turning point stories

2. your heart message

3. your legacy

These add up to your deepest understanding of life, your philosophy of life.

To create transcendent experiences for your audiences, interweave all of these with the content you deliver.

Do not tell your audience you are doing this. Simply do it.

With artistry and fluency, you then create unforgettable experiences for those you address . . .

And you earn your admission to the Pantheon of noble servers.

MY SPEAKERS MANIFESTO

My Goal with every presentation:

- Deliver an Immortal Speech
- Be a beacon of hope
- Show Respect and Appreciation
- Go deep to end high

I strive to be amongst the best amateur conference speakers in the world.
This is the greatest vocation of all.

For an amateur is a lover,
and a lover does something,
not because he gets paid for it,
but because he can't help it.
He must just do it.

This is the true professional.

- I am a lover.
- I have a message.
- I am the messenger.
- I must do it.
- I cannot otherwise.
